SINGLE? -TRUST GOD'S PLAN

As I speak at youth events in South Africa, one of the most requested topics to speak about is "Purity." In the South African culture this is a topic that not very many people are willing to discuss, but something that is very much needed. Many of our youth are becoming pregnant before marriage or dealing with sexual sins. Every time I speak on this topic the young people listen intently and soak in every word. For many of them, it is the first time anyone has ever told them to wait until marriage.

The exciting part is really helping them by sharing ways to overcome temptation; letting them know it is possible to honor God with your whole life; and encouraging those who have already made mistakes that God will forgive.

As I've seen the impact of these Purity Talks, I am amazed at how God has used my own life's testimony. I, like most women, desire to be married one day. However, I see how coming to South Africa as a single lady these three years has been for God's glory. God has used my singleness to be a testimony to the youth here that it is possible to remain pure. God is faithful and I trust in His perfect plan!

"Sarah is one lady that motivates me that it is possible to live a life devoted to the Lord from a young age."
